The Charleston Community Band, a non-profit organization, is a 65 piece-professionally-led, volunteer concert band, established in 1978. The Band performs throughout the Charleston county area including: Piccolo Spoleto, Carolina Day, The North Charleston Arts Festival, and local Christmas celebrations. Membership is open to all proficient percussion, brass and woodwind players, without audition.

The Band is requesting sponsorship to offset the expenses of venue rental, transportation of equipment, purchase of music, and directors' honoraria. All sponsors will be listed in the program of our Fall and Winter concerts as well as on our webpage.
